188/2023 Updates from Outside Bodies

St Marks Church

Remembrance service on Sunday. Chairman will lay a wreath.

St Marks Community Group

32 attended for afternoon tea.

Christmas event to be held on 9th of December.

The Halloween event was successful with a full church.

Winter Warmth started last Friday and was successful. This will continue on a Friday lunchtime.

Fundraising will continue for the works needed in the vestry.

NLC Councillor Update

The Environment Agency has given an update on ownership of land after request to plant trees. They do not have ownership or interest in the land where stated.

Could not place a bid for flashing speed signs as where the signs were wanted apposes where they would need to be. Sign on approach from Keadby could be "watch your speed". Sign on opposite approach to village could show speed of vehicles approaching. It was resolved for Cllr Reed to get up to date prices to show how much everything will cost and how much contribution will be needed.
